

Automotive Industry Resources

AUTO ALLIANCE
DRIVING INNOVATION®

<https://autoalliance.org>

<http://www.cargroup.org/>

<http://drivingworkforcechange.org/>

<http://www.carcam.org/>

<https://aama.memberclicks.net/>

2016 Average annual wage (Alabama):	$44,419
2016 Average annual wage (Manufacturing):	$54,030
2016 Average annual wage (Automotive):	$57,303

Advanced Manufacturing Sites

Learn more about what an advanced manufacturing career is, how to prepare for it, manufacturing facts and about the people and the companies involved in manufacturing. <http://www.careerme.org/>

The National Association of Manufacturers (NAM) is the nation's largest industrial trade association representing small and large manufacturers in every industrial sector and in all 50 states. This site provides employment information, facts about manufacturing, manufacturing news and much more! <http://www.nam.org/>

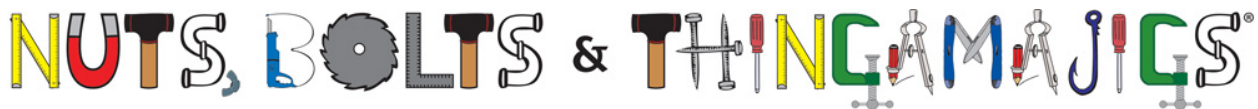

This American Welding Society and National Center for Welding Education & Training (Weld-Ed) web portal provides avenues for educators, welding professionals and students to explore! <http://www.careersinwelding.com/>

The SME Education Foundation seeks to introduce curious and creative young people to the world of modern manufacturing and the high-paying careers it offers. <http://www.sme.org/mfgis-fun/>

Get educated and updated on what's going on with our country's infrastructure, trades and other relevant issues important to Mike Rowe Works. You can also get equipped for the job with the latest tools and resources for education and financial aid. Find Tradesmen willing to share their experience and knowledge! <http://profoundlydisconnected.com/>

The Foundation of the Fabricators & Manufacturers Association, Intl.

This site offers sections for parents, students and more. The Student Center, is your link to building a career in metal forming and fabricating. Learn about available scholarships, find salary information for different careers in metal forming, and even find manufacturing camps and schools to prepare for your career. <http://www.nutsandboltsfoundation.org/>

TryEngineering

Discover the engineer in you on this website. Sometimes the best way to understand what engineers do is to try your hand at it! This site provides links to several engineering games on the internet to give you a first-hand try at the problem solving skills engineers employ every day!

<http://tryengineering.org/>

NCME is devoted to improving the state of manufacturing and engineering technology education nationwide. They serve as a source of materials, supports services and professional development opportunities for educators and industry professionals. <http://www.ncmeresource.org/>

The National Science Foundation STEM Guitar Project provides innovative professional development to high school and community college faculty. Faculty teams will take part in an intense five day guitar design/build project. Each faculty member will build his/her own custom electric guitar and will engage in student centered learning activities that relate the guitar design to specific math, science and engineering topics. <http://www.guitarbuilding.org/>

AIDT assists a variety of employers throughout the state by identifying a qualified applicant pool through recruitment, screening and training services. We recruit potential employees through advertisements and announcements, assessing applicants through application screening and assisting employers with applicant interviews. Applicants who successfully complete AIDT job-specific training are recommended for employment with the company for whom our services are provided. <http://www.aidt.edu/jobs/> and <http://www.aidt.edu/classes/>

A site dedicated to job opportunities and regional information for North Alabama, Includes a jobs board, Smart Careers and more. www.asmartplace.com