AMCOM Overview

Our Mission

The U.S. Army Aviation and Missile Command develops and delivers responsive aviation, missile, and calibration readiness at the point of need.

AMCOM executes more than $650 million annually in contracts that provide direct support to the warfighter.

Our Portfolio

- 7,600+ Military and Civilian Employees
- 2,900+ Contractors
- 77 Worldwide Locations
- 2 Organic Industrial Base Facilities
- 4 Fleet Management Expansion Sites
- 23 Logistics Readiness Centers/Sub-sites
- 42 Calibration Labs
- 82 Countries Foreign Military Sales

Our Services

- Sustainment Concepts
- Maintenance Strategies
- Technical Publications
- Airworthiness Authority
- Supply Chain Management
- Depot Operations
- Calibration & Test Equip
- Pass-back Maintenance
- Depot Forward Teams
- De-Militarization

Our Partners

- Huntsville and Madison
- Wichita State University
AMCOM Priorities and Initiatives

People
- Proficient and Diverse Workforce
- Recruiting Quality Candidates With New and Traditional Skillsets
- Expanding Training
- Personnel Safety

Readiness
- Supply Availability
- Equipment Readiness Rates
- Equipment Recapitalization
- Equipment Calibration
- Foreign Military Sales

Modernization
- UH-60V and Extended Range Cannon Artillery Cab Production
- Support to Cross Functional Teams
- OIB Modernization
- Advanced Manufacturing
- UH-60L Digital Twin

AMCOM Ombudsman: Mr. Eric Lampkin (eric.d.lampkin.civ@army.mil)
AMCOM Small Business: Mr. Chris Evans (christopher.a.evans.civ@army.mil)