Overview of Business Management & Clerical FBI Opportunities at Redstone Arsenal

MANAGEMENT AND PROGRAM ANALYST

MAPA job functions and roles can vary widely depending on specific assignment and division. From process improvement and standardization to data exploitation and visualization, MAPA's greatly aid HQ divisions in a number of interdisciplinary pockets.

BUDGET ANALYST

Budget Analysts perform regular and recurring assignments related to segments of the formulation, justification, presentation, and/or execution phases of the FBI's budget. Conducts research concerning the budgetary activities of the organization and makes appropriate recommendations.

SECURITY SPECIALIST

Security Specialists provide direct support and service to the FBI Security Program through contribution to complex security assessment investigations and render appropriate recommendations. Assess the reliability, loyalty, suitability and trustworthiness of those persons with access to sensitive or classified information. Analyze possible security concerns and assessment issues.

CONTRACT SPECIALIST

Contract specialists are the only FBI employees allowed to contractually obligate federal government funds for the purchase of goods and services. They engage in highly complex contract negotiations representing large dollar values. Unlike at other federal agencies, our contract specialists manage the full lifespan of their contractual agreements.

STAFF OPERATIONS SPECIALIST

SOS's are responsible for providing tactical support to operational units and squads to further case development. SOS's exploit voluminous data and find relevant information, which is provided to members of the intelligence and/or investigative workforce for decision and action. Evaluates and assesses case information and reports findings after review and validation.

INTELLIGENCE ANALYST

IA's are all-source analysts that collect and manage the dissemination of raw intelligence information from FBI investigations, sources and contacts to the intelligence, policy, and law enforcement communities. Assists throughout investigations in vetting, validating, testing, assessing positive intelligence potential, and providing tailored collection guidance.
